

An abstract painting featuring two women and a baby. The women are depicted with expressive, visible brushstrokes in warm tones of red, orange, and yellow. The woman on the left has dark hair and a contemplative expression. The woman on the right has lighter hair and a more direct gaze. A baby's face is visible on the right side, with a pacifier in its mouth. The background is a vibrant, textured red. The title 'die FRAU und RÖT' is overlaid in large, bold, red letters with black outlines. The word 'die' is in a smaller, lowercase font, and 'und' is also in lowercase. 'FRAU' and 'RÖT' are in all caps.
